

Law Practitioners (Qualifications) Regulations 1994

GN 56/1994

THE LAW PRACTITIONERS ACT 1984

Regulations made by the Council of Legal Education under sections 4(2)(a)(i) and 22 of the Law Practitioners Act 1984

1. These regulations may be cited as the Law Practitioners (Qualifications) Regulations 1994.

2. In these regulations—

“Act” means the Law Practitioners Act 1984;

“approved” means approved by the Council of Legal Education.

3. The degree in law required to be prescribed under section 4(2)(a)(i) and (ii) of the Act for admission as a law practitioner shall—

(a) in the case of the University of Mauritius, be the LLB degree with an approved syllabus and, in the case of any other university, a comparable degree; and

(b) be of a level of at least a second class degree or its equivalent.

4. These regulations shall not apply to a degree obtained before 1 January 1995.

Amended by [\[GN No. 93 of 1994\]](#)

5. These regulations shall come into force on 1 January 1995.

Made by the Council of Legal Education on 28 December 1993 and approved by the Prime Minister on 16 March 1994.