Communique: Court of Appeal and PACE

Dear friends,

Pursuant to section 3(2)(b) &(c) of the Mauritius Bar Association Act, the Bar Council made representations to Government on 23rd June 2021 with a view to set up a Court of Appeal separate from the Supreme Court as proposed by Lord Mackay and the need to enact a Police and Criminal Evidence Act to do away with unfair police practices.

Government responded on 29th July 2021 to inform the Council that both suggestions are being considered.

Regards

Mayuri Bunwaree-Ramlackhan
Secretary of the Bar Council
