Dear Friends,

Dress Code before the Children’s Court

Some Barristers have raised the issue of dress code before the Children’s Court and this matter has been taken up by the Council with the Presiding Magistrate.

Members are therefore informed that in criminal proceedings, Barristers should wear their Court attire. When appearing before the Protection Division, Barristers should dress formally.

Yours faithfully,

Mayuri Bunwaree-Ramlackhan
Secretary of the Bar Council
